CHALLENGES:

- Performance issues due to JD Edwards architectural design on AWS
- High cost of AWS with Oracle Licensing
- AWS BI and Web interface entrenched in AWS
- Dissatisfaction with managed services provider's JD Edwards expertise
- Need to manage entire Stack and multiple clouds
- Cost Reduction & Better on time shipping

RESULTS:

- 14 hours of work reduced to 5 minutes by using the Lease Copy functionality
- Functionality is a huge time-saving approach to dealing with ownership changes of Hines entities that are set up in JD Edwards.”
- The ability to continue billings for the new entity at the appropriate times so that accounts receivable is not adversely affected.
- The once tedious task of copying all log and legal clause information, as well as, all applicable attachments is extremely beneficial in order to maintain the proper critical lease information.
